Times Are Bad

Adam Green

Well, times are bad
And all the time you're feeling sad
And people are laughing
Telling you to go awayAnd your feet are trudging
You're always acting like you're curmudgeon
Well I know, I know that it's hard, hard, hardWell, it's hard to walk around
And feeling like a circus clown
Grab a big baton
And twirl it like a magic wand'Cause your cards are dealt
And everything is deeply felt
Well I know, I know that it's hard, hard, hardAnd when people that you love
Are attacking you from above
And everyone that you trust
Is just selling you a bucket of liesWell, just believe
That it's all gonna be okay
And I know, I know that it's hard, hard, hard
