Fairytale

Amy Grant

Fairytale, my life was just a fairytale I was letting an illusion Come into this heart of mine Fairytale, searchin' for a fairytale Hiding in a world Where life was simple all the time I was just like Peter Pan in Never Never Land Afraid of what the future might be Afraid to face the things I couldn't understand Afraid of things that I couldn't see But fantasy, I know There's more to life than a fantasy There's so much more That my life was meant to be So much more than make-believe Fairytale, it seems just like fairytale But there's something in my hear That says this time the story's real Fairytale, extraordinary tale Of a King who offers love So far beyond what I can feel There's a world out there That human eyes can never see But it's just within the reach of the heart Two princes wages the battle for eternity But the Victor has been known from the start Now I can see the truth Can seem so much like a fantasy But make-believe was never as real to me I know this time the story's true Just like Sleeping Beauty in a Neverland I was dying under a spell But then a Prince who comes from the Foreverland Awakened me from my fairytale
