Didn't I

Cheyenne Kimball

I feel a little bit jaded today
I did this to myself, I wonder why
A little bit faded away
I've had enough of your alibisDid I ever matter to you?
Did you ever worry?
Do you think of me at all?
'Cause you're the one that made me fall and you tell meOoh, woah, give me just a little bit of it
Ooh, woah, give me just a little bit of your loveDidnt I wait all day for you
In the pouring rain?
And I died a little when you walked away
And suppose you never criedDidnt I? Didn't I
Give a little more than you could take?
Didnt I? Didn't I? Didnt I?I feel a little bit sorry for you
Do you really think I should apologize?
I never thought you'd be untrue
I see it when I look in your eyesAnd now you wanna say sorry
But I wanna say goodbye
Did you think of me at all?
'Cause you're the one that took the fall and you tell meOoh, woah, give me just a little bit of it
Ooh, woah, give me just a little bit of your loveDidnt I wait all day for you
In the pouring rain?
And I died a little when you walked away
And suppose you never criedDidnt I? Didn't I
Give a little more than you could take?
Didnt I? Didn't I? Didnt I?Summer rain wash away
And I'm gonna be okay
All the pain, gone awayFind a way make a change
Tomorrow brings another day
For you and I to love
For you and I to walk away
To walk awayOoh, woah, give me just a little bit of it
Ooh, woah, give me just a little bit of your loveDidnt I wait all day for you
In the pouring rain?
And I died a little when you walked away
And suppose you never criedDidnt I? Didn't I
Give a little more than you could take?
Didnt I? Didn't I? Didnt I?
No, no, no, noDidnt I? Didn't I
Give a little more than you could take?

Didnt I? Didn't I? Didnt I?
No
