

Scar

Marc Almond

When you were afraid
I was there by your side
When you were alone
I was your place to hide
But always in your mind
You're some place far away
You were someone else
I really didn't know at all
When you told me how
You would stay around forever
You were already gone
Didn't really want to be found
Never here for long
You're already in the dark
Deep underground
I don't know who you are
But loving you my heart
still bears the scar
Look at how the lights
All dim tonight
How they moan for you
And your lost soul
It maybe just the tears
That blur the moment
Looking in your eyes
as black as coal
When you told me how
You would stay around forever
You were already gone
Didn't really want to be found
Never here for long
You're already in the dark
Deep underground
Sharpening your dagger
I'll never love the same
Or never love at all
My heart still bears the scar
I don't know who you are
But here I am again
Back for another fall
Reopen(ing) tender wounds
You never really loved me at all
It'll hurt just like before
A pain born of desire

The pain that never heals
From a heart that never feels
Deep underground
I don't know who you are
But loving you my heart
