Good Days

Joe Purdy

Well, the neighbours were talkin', and Charlie was barkin'. And the rain came and he calmed down and we slept through morning.[chorus]
And you said "sometimes I wish the sun didn't come out at all." yeah, you said "sometimes I wish the sun didn't come out at all. Just the good days." Just the good days.Oh Yeah and later on we took a southbound train, yeah and it was cold out, yeah it was freezing down rain, yeah and then it let up and we all screamed for the change yeah but you just stood there and you started to shake[chorus]
And you said "sometimes I wish the sun didn't come out at all." yeah, you said "sometimes I wish the sun didn't come out at all. Just the good days." No No, Just the good days.No No, Just the good days.
Yeah Yeah Just the good days.
Yeah Yeah Just the good days.And you lit a cigarette and you got out of bed and you stood on the balcony, yeah with your feet wet. And I begged you to come in out of the cold night, you said "it ain't the dark that I'm afraid of, it's the light"you said "it ain't the dark that I'm afraid of, it's the light" you said "it ain't the dark that I'm afraid of, it's the light" you said "it ain't the dark that I'm afraid of, it's the light"[chorus]
And you said "sometimes I wish the sun wouldn't come out at all." yeah, you said "sometimes I wish the sun wouldn't come out at all. Just the good days." No No, Just the good days.
