Fairytales

Alice Deejay

Devine, fantasy, like a dream, never ends.Fairytales are in my head
And in my head they start
To tell you bout the deepest thoughts
That lives in side my heartFairytales are in my head
And in my head they start
To tell you bout the deepest thoughts
That lives in side my heartDevine, fantasy, like a dream, never ends.Fairytales are in my head
And in my head they start
To tell you bout the deepest thoughts
That lives in side my heartFairytales are in my head
And in my head they start
To tell you bout the deepest thoughts
That lives in side my heart
