

Maybe God's a Woman Too

Elisabeth White

I walk the floor try to read watch a TV show and drink.... yes I do I turn back page after page picture book to think you cry, I'm feeling fine you laugh, you ask me so kind

You turn me inside out
I wanna let it all out
I wanna scream and shout
but maybe God is a woman woman too
but maybe God is a woman woman too

Look at me and my boyfriend what a pretty face at the other end A cup of instant coffee by the bed 5 hours cold, and my mind is fed up you lie, I'm counting until 9 you try, you ask me so blind

You turn me inside out
I wanna let it all out
I wanna scream and shout
but maybe God is a woman woman too
but maybe God is a woman woman too

I'm trying hard to find a way I'm trying hard and not to say you wouldn't try to take my hand you wouldn't even try take some time to understand
