

Scissor

Liars

I found her with my scissors
This heart fell to the ground
I'm supposed to save you now
But my hands are flipping out I'm a coward
In a soft porn army
I am waiting
With blood-soaked arms I'm waiting with blood-soaked arms I drag her body to the parking lot
I tried to find her a savior out there amongst the cars
Just then I began to quiver
When I saw her blinking eyes
She was alive And she's blinking her eyes
