

Wake Up

The Green

Well thereâ€™s this friend that I got, thought he always had me back but recently he be proving me wrong.
How many time he tried fe say that today he gonna change but still yet he sing the same old song.
Heâ€™s trying to live a thug's life in Hawaii kai, Brethren what ya think ya doing?
Ya pretty much got a wife, two kids on the side, gotcha girl going insane.

Now as your times start to get rough,
And ya feel your losing love,
Itâ€™s cause you never took the time to trust,
the one and only man above. (My friend you gotta wake up)

You gotta wake up brother open your eyes.
(yeah you gotta wake up)
You gotta wake up itâ€™s time you realize.
(ooh yeah you gotta wake up)
You gotta wake up brother open your eyes.
(yeah you gotta wake up)
You gotta wake up itâ€™s time you realize.

Now mister man Iâ€™ll tell ya this, well Jesus Christ isn't wrong with this, this life you living wasnâ€™t meant for yo
It shouldnâ€™t have to feel this way but when you play the games you play, sooner or later boy you gonna lose.
You wake up you get high, out drinking all night, Brethren what you think you doing?
You got me wondering why, praying to god youâ€™re alive, got your boys going insane.

Now as your times start to get rough,
And ya feel your losing love,
Itâ€™s cause you never took the time to trust,
the one and only man above. (My friend you gotta wake up)

You gotta wake up brother open your eyes.
(yeah you gotta wake up)
You gotta wake up itâ€™s time you realize.
(ooh yeah you gotta wake up)
You gotta wake up brother open your eyes.
(yeah you gotta wake up)
You gotta wake up itâ€™s time you realize.ï»¿

You gotta wake up brother open your eyes.
You gotta wake up itâ€™s time you realize.
You gotta wake up brother open your eyes.
You gotta wake up itâ€™s time you realize.ï»¿
