5 Day Rental

Apartment 26

You would not believe what I saw
One hundred million faces
Screaming at me from behind a wall
They cut the wire, those bastards.
It wasn't enough to bleed and never enough
To lure you down the corridor
Yeah, my room's right at the end.
Set to expel, and I was
A steady increase, yes I was
And I'm getting ready to return it to you.
And now I'm so far gone
Just thinking about it.
I haven't changed my mind
So forget about it.
I'm unafraid of those approaching dogs
Yeah, fuck them I'm five times their size
Cut off the balls, gauge out the eyes
Turn down the sound and adjust the lighting.
I don't have enough to feed you and
Your mouth full of uncertainty
The image that I'm left with

Is both pleasing and confusing.
I will put up a fight and I will end up forgetting
To return it to you.
Now I'm so far gone
Just thinking about it
I haven't changed my mind
Yeah, forget about it.
It is not enough to beat
No not enough to warrant you breaking my bones
I said I'm so far gone
Just forget about it.
Be kind. rewind.
You'll get a fine.
I'm getting ready to return it to you.
Now I'm so far gone
Just thinking about it
You haven't changed my mind

Yeah, forget about it.
It is not enough to beat
No not enough to warrant you breaking my bones
Now I'm so far gone
Just forget about it.
