

Shells (Candyland Remix)

Laurel

Make me feel again
The sea is cold, my only friend
I don't want to be alone
On the shells, on the shore
Skin and bones, we've lost ourselves
Holding onto all we felt
You pushed me out to survive
I fell in love just in time
But does she have what you want?
Does she love how I love?
Is she everything you need?
Colder you are, making
Me fall. I am breaking
Love hurts when it's all you need
And you're breaking me
Staring into the dark
Scared to go back to the start
I'll hurt and you will heal
Nothingness is all I feel
But does she have what you want?
Does she love how I love?
Is she everything you need?
Colder you are, making
Me fall. I am breaking
Love hurts when it's all you need
And you're breaking me
I walk into the wind
The sea's waves against my skin
Empty hand and tired eyes
Leave me here. I'll be fine
But does she have what you want?
Does she love how I love?
Is she everything you need?
Colder you are, making
Me fall. I am breaking
Love hurts when it's all you need
And you're breaking me
And you're breaking me
And you're breaking me
