

Restaurant

The Thrills

I worked so hard for that man
And he worked me to the bone
Said success won't be long He bought that old factory
'Cause the rich are born free
And that's how you want to be So I looked down from the rooftops one night
And I knew I could go far if you never left my sight But this'll never be what I want
In some fancy restaurant like now
This'll never be what I want
But all I ever wanted was you He was a beggar on a horse
He was neither brave nor bold
He watched our jobs get sold He took the drinks from our hands
So I took you in my arms
We watched the sun go down Then I knew that I've been taken for a fool
I took you for granted, I took fate as a rule This'll never be what I want
In some fancy restaurant like now
This'll never be what I want
And all I ever wanted was you I need you now more than before
I need you now more than before
I need you to be there, true and fair
If I prove myself here, I'll prove it anywhere But this'll never be what I want
In some fancy restaurant like now
This'll never be what I want
And all I ever wanted was you This'll never be what I want
This'll never be what I want
This'll never be what I want
This'll never be what I want
