Desensitized

Jonah33

Subliminal images crawl upon my screen
Taking what is meant for good
And making it obsceneIm growing numb
But what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you areIm so amazed at what sins become
Im so ashamed that Ive grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I dont want to be desensitizedJustify the reasons why
I stare through my calloused eyes
Im hollowed out, spiraled down
Slave to my own demiseIm growing numb
But what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you areIm so amazed at what sins become
Im so ashamed that Ive grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I dont want to be desensitizedSo what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you areIm so amazed at what sins become
Im so ashamed that Ive grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I dont want to be desensitized
I dont want to be desensitized
