The Last Kiss

Pretty Boy Floyd

There were times all along that I thought I was catching on Now I see it was only time catching up with me.
As you stand at the door I know Ibe never wanted you more There's just one thing before you turn and you walk out on meIf this is the last kiss if this is the last touchIf this is the last time I can ever be holding you.
If this is the last race
I can never forget your faceIf this is the last kiss Ill get used to itI'll get through this somehow someway.I won't stand in your way I won't even begin to say That you never looked better never looked so good to me Though I've asked this before I won't ever ask anything more ]ust close your eyes and please do this for me.
And if this is the last kiss if this is the last touch
. . .If you've ever been a lover she's got what you're looking for.
So donY surrender
'cause you might discover That somebodysomewhere is waiting for you to remember the last kiss.
Just remember the last touch remember the last timeI can ever be holding you.
Just remember the last race
I can never forget your faceIf this is the last kiss can't get used to itIll get used to it nohow
no noway.
Never get used to it never get used to itNever get used to it never get used to it
noway.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/