Angelus Exuro Pro Eternus

Dark Funeral

On my command - we started it all.
When heaven burned,
We torched their holy kingdom,
Our eyes on the angels turned.They screamed out in pain,
When they were swallowed by flames.It's the end of them, and their holy era.
Soon all of heaven will be in flames.
Heaven's doomsday roars, when their kingdom falls.
An eternity in pain
It's the end of them, and their holy era.
Soon all of heaven will be in flames.Angelus exuro pro eternusIt's the end of them - and their holy era.
Soon all of heaven will be in flames.
Heaven's doomsday roars, when their kingdom falls.
An eternity in pain
It's the end of them, and their holy era.
Soon all of heaven will be in flames.Angelus exuro pro eternusIn full force we came, blast through the gates.
Into their holy domain.
Burnt to the ground,
Nothing else you'll find.
Ruins are all that remains.It's the end of them - and their holy era.
Soon all of heaven will be in flames.
Heaven's doomsday roars, when their kingdom falls.
An eternity in pain
It's the end of them - and their holy era.
Soon all of heaven will be in flames...In flames...Angelus exuro pro eternus
