

Good Night to Be Lonely

Steve Holy

Tired of channel surfing el camino ain't working monday night an i'm hurting for company
Bummed a ride to the hideaway
I'm the only guy in the place
Bored silly, wasn't gonna stay
Then she walks in, heaven sent
And it occurs to meChorus:
What a good night to be lonely
Somebody's looking out for me
Oh, what an opportunity
Right out of the blue
Is it luck or a twist of fate
Doesn't really matter either way
It's a good night
A good night to be lonelyDollars worth of quarters
Played some songs and ordered
One for me and one for her
As I tipped my hatSaid that she felt restless Just moved here from Texas that's when I suggested
Maybe she could dance with me
She said "thought you'd never ask"Repeat chorusShes following I'm leading Feels just like I'm dreamingWhat a good night to be lonely
Somebody's looking out for me
Oh, what an opportunity
Right out of the blue
Is it luck or a twist of fate
Doesn't really matter either way
It's a good night, a real good night
It's a good night
A good night to be lonely
