Dream Tracking (feat. Halima)

Beshken

Bruh
Feelings in a crisis, too many of the high kids
Too many, man donâ€™t wanna start shit.
To claim to be righteous
What have I done?
I have become someone free living through re-runs
Come home drunk, killinâ€™ my lungs
[indecipherable] when you canâ€™t function
Fresh young blood
I donâ€™t wanna catch you love, uh Ending up 6 feet under Iâ€™m too fucked up to let go of what Iâ€™ve been told, break the world
Too many men!

Thereâ€™s a voice in my head
itâ€™s invading in body cause itâ€™s okay
So instead I try to conquer the world
break the wall
they say
Iâ€™m too weak to climb that
Iâ€™m too weak to climb that

Iâ€™ve been on my grind all the time Might as well wait in line, donâ€™t percieve the feelin yo fight the feelings Iâ€™ve been dealin Double MC what you thinking bout that low key but Iâ€™m finna make stats Rhymes so fast what Iâ€™m first class Fuckin waste time, I come in last Iâ€™m a changed clover, a new mandate for a New persona
When you come though Iâ€™ll be Caught in moula
Leave you to you baked in suga
Come step to me
I shot you down like HIV come round to my flat jacked keys
Moved over seas, drank the tea, now I fuck with American cheese

Donâ€™t try to tell me, now
Iâ€™ll keep fighting

Silence is too profound
For my liking
Donâ€™t try to take me now
Iâ€™ll keep rising
Silence is too profound
And I donâ€™t really like it

Letâ€™s believe, Beshken on a beat that I breathe
My crew got checks up sleeves
I donâ€™t wanna brag, but I do as I plesse
I donâ€™t give a _____ if he hate me
Eat trolls, a little bit tasty
What canâ€™t I be that wonâ€™t break me
Low key they tryna imitate me
Youâ€™re crazy
Think Iâ€™ll just shut up like a wimp?
I walk like the man and thatâ€™s grim Itâ€™s all gonna bate the work we cash in Still gonna do me bad for my sin
But itâ€™s okay, Iâ€™m dream tracking
He can talk the talk, but keep slacking
And Iâ€™ll rise up, take that crown
Imma be the queen from London Town What?

Thereâ€™s a voice in my head
itâ€™s invading in body cause itâ€™s okay
So instead I try to conquer the world
break the wall
they say
Iâ€™m too weak to climb that
Iâ€™m too weak to climb that
