

Dead (feat. Youngstah)

Mr. Lil One

[Mr. Lil One]

Jack 'The Ripper', strippin mothafkas for their egos
Peace to all the bald heads, mobbn in their regals
Need no mothafka to be tellin me I'm sick!
I feel it everyday with every fkin word I say
I paid my respects to the dead that be cursed
Oh what you disagree, it's murder in the first It's hurts to be livin, though I give it all I got Wanna see me shot, but I guess they never thought I'ma a genius, we don't get along
Everytime we bump, when we dumpin on a song
Feenin for my shit, my wisdom in my word
Lil's new shit is the bomb, ya heard
Heard about the heat, I've been bringin to the beat
I bet that you've been hatin, wishin it never hit the street
Eat a dick, lick nuts, suck balls and take that It's wicked ol' Lil, I bet you hate that[Chorus: Mr. Lil One]
Mothafkas talk shit and they always wanna creep
Remember mothafka you be talkin in your sleep
It's Mr. Lil One and I brought my homie Young
Stop, to the death leavin mothafkas dead[2x][Youngstah]
Now I'm creepin through a war zone, in every single block
I'm hearin gun shots and it's all a murder plot
They're tryin to take me for my life, this Sicko can't be nothin nice
I got my finger on the trigger, ain't no time for thinkin twice
Now I'm dumpin out the clip and yo I'm aimin for the dome
And I'm ready to make the cemetry your home
You can bring who you want, but you're fkin wit the baddest
It's the Lil and the Youngstah, leave em R.I.P. status
We be steppin and collectin all them bodies talkin shit
Now it's time to lead aggression with a fkin Smith and Wesson
When I'm fkin wit the sickest it's a deadly combination
2 trigger happy gangstas with no clue or hesitation
I'ma do my evil dirt and I'ma put in on my work
All the way to the death from the mothafkin birth
I'ma snatch your fkin life and I'ma show you what it's worth
A 6 foot hole in a pile of dirt
