

Nervous Shakedown

AC/DC

"Freeze", said the man, cruisin' the beat
"You get your hands up, spread your feet"
"Don't you move an inch", I heard him say
"Or you'll be doin' time till the judgment day"

And he said:

"Don't tell me no lies, give me alibi's"
"'cause if you cross my path you've been doing life"

It's a dirty lie

It's a shakedown -- and it's a nervous shakedown
A nervous shakedown -- another nervous shakedown
"Take you dime" said the man, "you can make one call"

And get a one-way ticket to the County Hall

Well the judge looked high and I looked low

And when he smiled at me it was a one-man show

He said:

"Two to five the jury decides"

"Double parole if you survive"

It's a dirty lie

It's a shakedown -- and it's a nervous shakedown
A nervous shakedown -- another nervous shakedown
Law is gonna get you this time And throw away the key
