Poisoned Hearts

Mendeed

Poisoned hearts without a conscience
Bringing down your people with the hand of greed
Death resonates from your smile, backing the world into silence
Bringing us all to our knees with the olive branchI don't believe in your truth
Don't believe in your truthWithout your militant, without your government
All you are is a worthless bigot spreading a disease
Begging to be heard as others want to kill you
Welcome to our world, we're glad to have you backTake your penance and go in peace
Your damnation of the nations sacrificed the living in a bath of blood
No more hatred, your time has past
Your damnation of the nations sacrificed the innocence in crimes of guiltSo our patience with you has run out
And we will hold you for what you have done
In your eyes we can see that you were sent to destroy us
This is our time to rise, this is our time to fight nowWe can build a new kingdom
We'll eliminate oppression we can be one world
Save our selves with every devil that falls
We can end the feuds they gave us, we'll resurrect mankindGo
Poisoned hearts without a conscience
Bringing down your people with the hand of greed
