Champion

The Chevin

I can hear the ocean noise
I can feel the pulsing crowd
Buzzing like a radio
Pumping like a disco soundI can see a burning sun breaking through a raining cloud
Just like my heartbeat
A heartbeat, beating through the townLost forever, in love
I am your favourite son
I am a champion
Oh, I am the fire inside of a loaded gun
I am a champion
Oh, I am the fire insideI don't want to waste my time
I'm just trying to find my way
Racing through a perfect town
We're racing on a perfect daySometimes, when I close my eyes
I listen to the words you sayOh, people love a rising star,
People love a rising starPeople love a rising star
In loveI am your favourite son
I am a champion
Oh, I am the fire inside of a loaded gun
I am a champion
Oh, I am the fire insideOf the window in my mind
Where the wind blows, from time to time
Where the seed grows a perfect vine
Where whatever's yours is mineIn loveI am your favourite son
I am a champion
