Smart Girls

Rivers Monroe

Smart Girl by Definition
Comic books and terrible vision
Baby you can go and leave those glasses onShe's all alone on a friday night and she's checking out her twitter While she's playing babysitter and she calls me up going (why don't you come on over) (alright, yeah)she's got a tattoo of a 1 up on her all her favourite games are all played on 8-bit wondering why firefly never had a second seasonThis is what i like about herSmart Girl by Definition
Comic books and terrible vision
Baby you can go and leave those glasses on (whoa-ah)
She's geeky intelligent
Just for the hell of it She's all mine, yeah, she can say the same and if you want to win her you got to play the game [Chorus]She doesn't get how much I make Doesn't spend up all her money on a dinner and a movie date
Me and smart chicks stayin' in and rockin' Netflix (whoa-oh-a-oh)She's the only girl I'm with But I let her have a choice between David Tennant or Matt Smith
Doctor Who and a bad case, a bad case of lovin' you[Chorus]Smart Girls they know it all Keep us guessing till we fall
If you want to score you got to play her game[Chorus]Smart Girls (x3)If you lose the girl there's no one else to blame
