

I Need Love

Bosson

I need love
I want loveThe time was not right
Blinded by magic in my baby's eyes
All I ever dreamed of
I saw you in white, walking by my sideBut I still believe that one day
Things work out for you and me
And I still believe we can't be friends
There's so much more for us to beI need love, I need you
I want love, I want youI need love
(Nothing's been the same since you walked out that door)
I need you
(You are everything that I've been looking for)
I need love, I need youSo full of life and so many things
That you wanted to
My world was too small for you
So try your wings the way I used to doBut I still believe that one day
When your world is cold and mean
You will fly back home where you belong
To the luckiest man you've seenI need love, I need you
I want love, I want youI need love
(Nothing's been the same since you walked out that door)
I need you
(You are everything that I've been looking for)
I need love, I need youSo when I miss you like crazy
I just take a walk to our place down by the sea
To make a wish on a falling star
And I wish you were here with me
With me, with me, with meI need love, I need you
I want love, I want youI need love
(Nothing's been the same since you walked out that door)
I need you
(You are everything that I've been looking for)
I want love, I want youYou are the one I want
You are the one I need
You are the one I want
You are the one I need
