Easier To Lie

Cassadee Pope

La la laaaa.
La la laaaa.
La la laaaaaa.Sneaking out the bedroom, cursin'
Trippin' on his stuff.
Lookin' for my car keys while i'm pullin my jeans up.
I make sure i'm out before, I turn my phone back on.
I've got 5 missed calls.Can't believe what I just did
I lost myself tonight.
I just gotta get to you
The guilt's makin' me dry.
I stumble in, I wake you up.
Then, you look at me.
I just can't speak.Cause you're the only one, the only one
who ever gave a damn.
And it's killin' me to know you think
i'm better then I am.
Came over here to tell the truth,
but lookin' in your eyes..
Baby, sometimes it's easier to lie.You know that i've been cryin', so you ask what's goin' on.
Your arms around my shoulder,
you've got no clue what i've done.
Cause you don't seem to guilt me,
and that just makes it worse.
Yeah, that just makes it worse.Cause you're the only one, the only one
who ever gave a damn.
And it's killin' me to know you think
i'm better then I am.
Came over here to tell the truth,
but lookin' in your eyes..
Baby, sometimes it's easier to lie.La la laaaa.
Oh oh ohh.
It's easier to lie.
Whoa. It's so easy...Can't believe what I just did,
I lost myself tonight.Cause you're the only one, the only one
who ever gave a damn.
And it's killin' me to know you think
i'm better then I am.
Came over here to tell the truth,

but lookin' in your eyes..
Baby, sometimes it's easier to lie.& it's killing me to know you think i'm better then I am.
Came over here to tell the truth,
but lookin' in your eyes..
Baby, sometimes it's easier to lie.
