Dark Lines

Gossip

Heavy makeup, doesn't cover up The many sleepless nights, I can't hide Under dark drawn on lines The circles underneath my eyesOoh, why me? Ooh somebody tell me why? I go to parties and all I see Are a room full of faces, staring back at me Tell me why, why me?You paint a picture Of a sad and long winter Oh, when you were mineSometimes I hear you talking Your reflection in my coffee And I can't stop cryingWhy me? Why me? I go to parties and all I see Are a room full of faces, staring back at me Tell me why, tell me why me?Ooh tell me why? Why me? Why me? Mmm
