

Where Are You

Lucky 7

What happened to the girl that I once knew.
What happened to the eyes I once starred into.
No Ie never been the same since that day that I first met you.
What happened to the special place we shared.
And all those promises we made there.
No Ie never been the same since the day that I first met you.
Where are you?
Youe not in my life, stuck in my heart still in my mind.
Well times have changed, I guess so have you,about time I realize.
Ie said these words five hundred times.
I can get you out of my mind.
