Fine Time to Explain

Spyro Gyra

When did love fall out from under this perfect moonlight sky
I never meant to put a teardrop in your eye
So, tell me why You've had a change of heart thatâ€™s tearing me apart
All I ever wanted was your love, So I say you picked a

Fine time to explain, when my feelings remain
So insane in love with you, you picked a
Fine time to explain, and go on your way
Fine time to say it's over

You were all I ever needed, Many times I made that clear
A seed I thought was strongly planted, withered here my dear
I know weâ€™ve grown apart, Come and heal my wounded heart
All I want is one more chance for your love
So I say you picked a

Fine time to explain, when my feelings remain
So damn insane in love with you, you picked a
Fine time to explain, and go on your way
Fine time to say it's over

How can you leave me? (how can you leave me?)
Good things donâ€™t come so easy
Please surrender (please) and Iâ€™ll be yours forever

You picked a
Fine time to explain, when my feelings remain
So damn insane in love with you, you picked a
Fine time to explain, and go on your way
Fine time to say it's over
