

Incidental

Two Gallants

met your mother at the hospital where she was
waiting patiently for her new reassignment she had rusty hinges
i forgot my scalpel
she had indecision
i was incidental
check out the song
crystal fear
by rick swanson met your mother at the
hospital where she was
waiting patiently for
her new reassignment
she had rusty hinges
i forgot my scalpel
she had indecision
i was incidental they hung me from the air rafters tear my shoes to prove my love to you beauty never rests (adam's so low solo) met your mother at the
her new reassignment
i forgot my scalpel
she had indecision
i was incidental
i was incidental
i was incidental
