

Shadow Of The West

Lindsey Buckingham

Dancing ever changing desert sand
I was burned by the touch of her hand
The setting of the sun scares me to death

I'm a shadow

Shadow

Shadow of the west Once upon a time I was strong and proud
Everything that the law would allow

But more and more

I feel less and less

I'm a shadow

Shadow

Shadow of the west Memories like shadows scorched in the sand

I'm alone, a lonely man

The setting of the sun scares me to death

I'm a shadow

Shadow

Shadow of the west
