Strange Angels

Elmore James

Strange angels, why do you treat me so mean?
You look strange angel
Now why do you treat me so mean?
You're the meanest little girl that I most ever seenYou left me this morning and didn't even say goodbye
Yes, you left me this morning
And didn't even say goodbye
I wanna love you, baby, but I don't know the reason whyAh, when I said goodbye, baby, I didn't mean for you to go
When I said goodbye, baby, I didn't mean for you to go
You get devilin' on your mind
And I ain't never see you anymore
