Imperfect

Keri Noble

What if you thought I was perfect?
If you stopped on the street just to look,
If I was the girl they all wanted to be,
I wonder would I still be me?

What if I could be the smartest?
If I had all the answers to life,
If no one had ever met somebody like me,
I wonder would I still be some one that I like?

If it's just me,
With every single little missin'
And mixed up piece.
I don't know what you wanna see but I am,
Individually, imperfect, incredible me.

What if I made all the papers?
If I was the next one to watch?
If everyone wanted a picture of me,
If I took a look what would I see?

If it's just me,
With every single little missin'
And mixed up piece.
I don't know what you wanna see but I am,
Individually, imperfect, incredible me.

Oh, when I am old and gray,
It all fades away.
What will people say?
What will my story be?

What if I could make you happy?
If I could just get you to smile.
If I liked you just for yourself,
Do you think you'd stay awhile?

If it's just me,
With every single little missin'
And mixed up piece.

I don't know what you wanna see but I am,
Individually, imperfect, incredible me.

It's just me (Yeah.)
With every single little missin'
And mixed up piece.
I don't know what you wanna see but I am,
Individually (imperfect),
Ordinary (A little neurotic)
Individually, Imperfect, incredible me.

Ooh ho
It just, it's just me

Hey yeah
