The Damned

I can take all of your dreams
Transform the way you feel
Make life a little easier
For you to face your fears
As the evening starts to crawl
Dark shadows on the walls
Are dancing and inviting you
To come and taste it allIf you want to take a chance
Seduction's in a glass
Taking you to another placeCome taste this lunacy
Be blinded by the green faerie
Creeping out of your glass
Into your mind
Then you can really see
I can take all of your fears
Transform the way you feel
Welcome to the spirit world
Where all your dreams are realIf you want to take a chance
Seduction's in a glass
Taking you to another placeAs the evening starts to crawl
Dark shadows on the walls
Are dancing and inviting you
To come and taste it all
I can take all of your fears
Transform the way you feel
Welcome to the spirit world
Where all your dreams are realIf you want to take a chance
Seduction's in a glass
Taking you to another placeAnd now our trip to wonderland
Has finally come to an end
And if you're not completely mad...
I will be your best friend
