

Invisible Hands

JD Martin

When a child believes
He'll live his dreams
His prayers are heard
He fears no thunder
And when he falls
    He safely lands
Guided by invisible hands

When a mother cries
    She hides her tears
Says the lord provides
But she can't help wonder
    Who will give her child
What his heart demands
    Oh.... invisible hands

Lost in the darkness we are lifted by love
    Whisper and somebody hears
And if we dare to make that leap of faith
    Somehow the bridge appears

When a silent storm
    Knocks me down
And the tide and times
    Pull me under
    I will stand again
On these shifting sands
    Held by invisible hands
    Oh....invisible hands

Lost in the darkness we are lifted by love
    Whisper and somebody hears
And if we dare to make that leap of faith
    Somehow the bridge appears

When a child believes
He'll live his dreams
His prayers are heard
He fears no thunder
And when he falls

He safely lands
Guided by invisible hands
