Breathing

Majozi

We all have problems
We all have words that we Wish we could cast out
Into the sea

And all these problems
Yeah all these worries we have
Make us who we shouldnâ€™t be

Well itâ€™s not easy
Sometimes enough is enough
Who put our backs up
Against a wall?

Well please believe me
That when your life gets too tough
You can always call

Hey now (hey now)
Who cares what they say now (say now)
Keep dreaming

When you're sunk in the middle
And your life is just a riddle
Well, darling just keep breathing.

Darling just keep breathing

They say youâ€™ll never
Be anything in this world
So whatâ€™s the point of
Of even trying

Donâ€™t think to ever
Take it in, my girl
Cause they all end up lying

Hey now (hey now)
Who cares what they say now (say now)

Keep dreaming

When you're sunk in the middle
And your life is just a riddle
Well, darling just keep breathing

Darling just keep breathing

Hey now
Who cares what they saaaaaaaaaa aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaay

Hey now (hey now)
Who cares what they say now (say now)
Keep dreaming

When you're sunk in the middle
And your life is just a riddle
Well, darling just keep breathing

Darling just keep breathing
Darling just keep breathing
Darling just keep breaâ€¦
