Down The Road

Adam Gregory

i see your tears
i hear your words
girl, i feel how much this hurts i know you can't, see it now, but i promise you, somehow
its gonna be beautiful
its gonna be easy
its gonna be magic
its gonna be healing
there's a place you're meant to be,
but its somewhere
down the road from me
i ask god, "what do i do?"
"Whats the best way i can love you?"
he said, "son, you gotta set her free, cuz i have a way,

that she has just gotta see."
there is a place you're meant to be
it might be a thousand tears away but baby i believe that there comes a day
but its somewhere down the road from me
