Broken Vessel

The Color Morale

At the rate things are going, it's getting hard to breathe
And if I don't leave soon, this will be the death of me
Another chapter of my life I keep keeping myself from sharing
You're the compass I still follow, there's no gravityI'm like a broken vessel, but I didn't sink in the sea
I'm drowning now cause I let you inside of me
I wanna feel the fire again, fire again
The flame is gone and all I want is the fire again, fire again
The most beautiful hell I've ever seenSuffocating here on dry land While you're somewhere pushing somebody else in
I bought in, you were oh so deep
But I won't dive againI'm like a broken vessel, but I didn't sink in the sea
I'm drowning now cause I let you inside of me
I wanna feel the fire again, fire again
The flame is gone and all I want is the fire again, fire again
The most beautiful hell I've ever seen

Songwriters
MATTHEW WENTWORTH, GARRET RAPP, AARON SAUNDERSPublished by Lyrics Â© THE BICYCLE MUSIC COMPANY

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/