Surrender

Darin

We were best friends
Even though I wanted more
Too afraid to ask
But I was always sureI see you now and then
But my feelings never changed
You went and fell in love
Left me standing in the rainI guess he stole your heart
But I see he broke it too
That's something I would never doIf only you would walk away
And be without the shadows left by him
He never loved you anyway
I wish that you would break and let me inSurrender, surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender, surrenderWith every shot he fires
It's a bullet of the truth
It pierces your heart
But it pierces mine tooYou masquerade the pain
With your miserable tears
But things are gonna change
When I make you forget his nameSo now you're back in town
And I see you every day
Tonight I'm not afraid to sayIf only you would walk away
And be without the shadows left by him
He never loved you anyway
I wish that you would break and let me inSurrender, surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender, surrenderI think you know it's been you
And nobody else
I've waited a long time
And I'll be damned if I just let you goIf only you would walk away (Walk away)
And be without the shadows left by him (Left by him)
He never loved you anyway (Anyway)
I wish that you would break and let me inSurrender, surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender, surrenderWoah oh
Surrender and leave
