Dip, dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip, dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday nightDip
(Dip)
Dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip, dive, socialize, get readyUh, imagine waking up, solidarity is evident
Harmony moves, time is irrelevant
People, the places, the message basic
From raise fists to sit-ins, resist the changePeep the scenario, to the future bro 2020 and some number a year ago
People rose up, governments froze up
Worldwide block party, everybody shows upUp on roof tops, ghettos and hot spots
People celebratin' no more souls rot
No more bloodshed over false deficit
Even hip-hop gets a fuckin' face-liftThe latest fashion, stock market's crashin'
It's Saturday, time to get the party crackin'
And if the time and the day is right
The revolution will begin this Saturday nightDip, dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip, dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday nightDip
(Dip)
Dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip, dive, socialize, get ready(Hey, hey, hey)
Futuristic, I'm killin' 'em every synonym
Sendin' 'em back with syllabal venom up in 'em
Too terrific, epitome of a pendulum
Digital rap, got animal stamina in 'emSon your soul, and backbone were the clap come from ([Unverified])

Action Jackson, matter-fact
We move you from the front to the back see
Plug us up and then bump this new phat beat
When it drop, stores oughtta stop on me
Shop 'til ya drop, homey that's not me
Rush an attack from the back on three
Stop on me, shout, "World peace!"
Slide from the block, love peace, oh please
We don't need bouncers or police
It's Saturday night, it's nothin' better
Spread the word, we comin' together
So come on with me now
Dip, dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip, dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip
(Dip)
Dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip, dive, socialize, get ready
(Hey you guys!)
(Hey you guys!)
(Hey you guys!)
Dip, dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip, dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip
(Dip)
Dive, socialize
Get ready for the Saturday night
Dip, dive, socialize, get ready
