

Little Bit Of Love

Celine Dion

Look at you baby, the picture of a broken man
Your confidence is shaken, the world caved in on you again
But I know what to do to ease the pain
And bring you back to life againA little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is really all you need
When life gets tough you need
A little bit of love sometimesOh baby, hold me, let all that anger disappear
A little smile is showing, something's catching fire here
And when the morning comes you'll be good as new You'll take this night that we've shared with youA little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is really all you need
When life gets tough you need
A little bit of love sometimesA little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is stronger than anything
Words ain't enough you need
A little bit of love sometimesYou've done it before, you'll do it again
Get up off the floor, and jump right back in Baby, I still believe in you and we'll see this through
'Cause true love is on our sideA little bit, a little bitA little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is really all you need
When life gets tough you need
A little bit of love sometimesA little bit of love, can go a long way sometimes
A little bit of love is really all you need
When life gets tough you need
A little bit of love sometimes, a little bit of love
