Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Hey Nate you know you got to focus on this motherfucker
We's gonna talk about these scandalous hoes I can talk about scandalous bitches Oh I know you can!
I know you that's why we gonna do it

Daz on the beat

Hey Daz, nigga stop fucking around with the piano nigga
Just drop that shit like, this here I met you through my homie now you act like you don't know me

So disappointed cause baby that shit was so phony

It's not for me, you see no loving from my closest homies
Would of paid you no mind, but baby you was all up on me
While you proceed with precision, you had the table hosed
No, I ain't mad at you baby, go 'head and play them fools
They chose not to listen, so now he stuck inside his house

And can't leave without his bitch permission

The mission's to be a player, my alias is Boss

Drop a top on these jealous niggas, player let me floss

Y'all don't wanna see me in pain

I'll leave that ass like Toni Braxton, "Never breathing again"

It's scandalous, I never liked your back stabbing ass, trick
Used to watch you money grabbing, who you bagging bitch?

Ready to bust, in the city you don't know who to trust

But bitches looking scandalous [Chorus]

Scandalous, she's so scandalous, she's so scandalous

She's so scandalous, she's so scandalous, she's so scandalous

Scandalous, she's so scandalous, she's so scandalous

She's so scandalous, she's so scandalous, she's so scandalous How's it hanging? Cause baby from the back the shit is banging

I've been stressing in this ghetto game, trying to do my thing

Won't be no bullshit, no ass-kissing

This bitch'll have ya waking up with all your cash missing

I'm asking, as if I'm qualified to analyze

You're looking at a bitch who specialize in telling lies

She got a body make a motherfucker fantasize

Her face ain't never shed a tear through them scandalous eyes
My sister Precious in poverty
Plus I knew she was a freak bitch so why should it bother me?
I'd probably be sprung, addicted to the heat of her tongue
And though I don't where we're going, she's making me come
I've been trained as a boss player, so what you saying?
Let me show you, got some hookers we can toss later
Before I let her get me off guard
Went in the purse took a hundred dollars
Nigga I'm so scandalous[Chorus]Dangerous and ambitious, while scheming on getting riches
I'm spitting at tricks cause I'm addicted to pretty bitches
Currency motivated, not easily terminated
Now that we made it, my niggas can never be faded
This is my prophecy, I gotta be paid
All you cowards that try to stop me is begging for early graves
I thought we was cool, I was a fool, thinking you could be true
When I don't fuck with your punk crew
These are the tales for my niggas doing time in the cell
I went from hell, to living well
Busting at niggas who said my name in vain
I got no time for them tricks, I'm heavy in the game
I wanna be a baller, please
But the bitches and the liquor keep on calling me
I'm floating free on the highway, formulating plans
Can't wait til I see L.A., cause it's so scandalous[Chorus: x2]
