Cold Lover's Waltz

Mandolin Orange

Lately I've been reelin cuz I cant shake this feeling You always aimed at stealin my heart and through the hours of turnin this thought around my yearnin for you has turned to burnin
And now I am lost

In a cold lovers waltz
just spinnin round on hollow ground
with a lost cause
In a cold lovers waltz

Parting ways reminds me
You'll never lie beside me without that twinge of guilty wonderin
As this time goes empty this love has lent me is strong enough to keep me in the swing of

just spinnin round on hollow ground
with a lost cause
In a cold lovers waltz

All I ever wanted was to be to you what you are to me now she's the one that you call home and Im just the one you leave in a cold lovers waltz
