Slothrust

You have got an open mouth,
and I have got an open wound.
Want to suck the poison out?
Will you suck the poison out?
And I would spread my wings
if they weren't so goddamn heavy.
And I would spread my wings
if they weren't covered in honey. But, I would wash my hands for you.
I'm sure that I could get them clean.
I won't be gentle anymore.
I'll use expensive soap,
I'll scrub aggressively. There'd be no more germs.
You would be so clean,
you would be clean.
The dirt would fade away,
you will be clean. Being dirty is practical,
all the girls leave you alone.
When you're sticking to yourself,
you don't want nobody else. I would spread my wings
if they weren't so goddamn heavy.
Yeah, I would spread my wings
if they weren't covered in honey. Sucking flies into your throat, coughing up nests on your chest.
We could live together there,
never fly to anywhere.
