Zoot Woman

What am I doing, what will I see
An opportunity that isn't for me
I can't take my eyes off you
Take my eyes off you
Give your eyes my view for a second
I'm caught up in you appearing so free
Everything else I can take or leave
I've tried to define I'm making no sense
Can't stand by and wait for the consequence
I can be anything that you want
I can dream of the dreams that you want
Saturate every part of your life
Would you want it any other, other way
What am I doing, what will I see
An opportunity that isn't for me
I can't take my eyes off you
Take my eyes off you
Give your eyes my view for a second
I can be anything that you want
I can dream of the dreams that you want
Saturate every part of your life
Would you want it any other, other way
I can't take my eyes off you
Take my eyes off you
Give your eyes my view for a second
