

Revolution Song

Noel Gallagher's High Flying Birds

They took my faith
Put it in a headlock and
Sealed my fate
Somewhere inside of the world in which I live
Because I'd failed
They constantly ignore me and
They told me I'd lost my mind when I believed that I ruled the world
And I'm singing my revolution song
Like nothing else matters
You can pit your gold against my soul
But you're gonna get shattered
There's a million houses in my hall
It won't be long
It won't be long
Until I've solved that mystery But what for me?
What do I believe in?
And the master-key
Is somewhere inside of the world in which I live
And what for they?
They don't speak for no one and
I may have lost my mind
When I believed that I ruled the world And I'm singing out my revolution song
Like nothing else matters
You can pit your gold against my soul
But you're gonna get shattered
There's a million houses in my hall
It won't be long
It won't be long
Until I've solved that mystery And I'm singing out my revolution song
Like nothing else matters
You can pit your gold against my soul
But you're gonna get shattered
There's a million houses in my hall
It won't be long
It won't be long
Until I've solved that my, until I've solved that mystery
