

Broken & Beautiful

Suzie McNeil

You fall apart and I run in from anywhere
Like cameras at an accident
My staring eyes, I wonder why I care
Maybe Ill be frightened by the pain
But watch your tragedy againChorus
Cause you are broken and beautiful
And youre so damn cynical
But Im drawn in by the darkness in your eyes
And its beautiful
Broken and beautifulTalkin you down from ledges to stay with me
Ill touch your sharpest edges
Ill be the one that holds your hand when you bleed
Falling off in pieces like you do
I would hand them back to youChorusMy favorite mess, like a magnet pulling me down until I drop
Call be obsessed with your sadness but I dont want to make it stopChorusAnd youre not like usual
And Im drawn in by the darkness in youre eyes
And its beautiful
Broken and beautiful
