Throw It All Away

Staind

It doesn't feel like this is over
It's never felt like it's begun
Always looking over my shoulder
Waiting for the end to comeAnd than you throw it all away
Throw it all away
Nothing I could say
Throw it all awayYou feel like you're still here bleeding
You bleed until there's nothing left
It doesn't seem to ever be enough for me
It leaves me empty in the endAnd than you throw it all away
Throw it all away
Nothing I could say
Throw it all awayIt's never enough to breakdown inside
It's never enough to hold on to pride
It's never enough to give up your soul
It's never enough
It doesn't feel like this is overAnd than you throw it all away
Throw it all away
Nothing I could say
Throw it all away
