

Summer Wishes Winter Dreams

Abbey Lincoln

Summer wishes, winter dreams
drifting down forgotten streams Songs and faces, smiles and whispers come from far away
to visit me this day Yesterday has come to tea sitting here across from me Dressed in faded flowers and rambling on for hours...
And hours...
I'd love to stay
but I must meet today
