You said you could
You would, you should
And nothing could be this good again
Nothing could beat this Nothing, nothing Fracture and break
Falling from grace
Finding someone you trust
Believe, elate, saved Crawling, I'm crawling Hanging on There's only one way out
Pushing up
There's only one way now 'Cause yeah, life's for livin'
So don't you give in
Don't you tear it apart All that you face, you lose
Abuse, carry the cross
The faith, the loss
The weight, the bruise Falling, I'm falling Moving around a town, a space
Climbing a wall, a tower, a tree
A higher place Calling, I'm calling Hanging on There's only one way out
Pushing up
There's only one way now 'Cause hey, life's for living
So don't you give in
Don't you tear it apart yeah Hey, life's forgiving
So don't you give in
Don't you tear it apart, yeah You said, you could, you should
And nothing could be this good again
Nothing could beat this Nothing, nothing Finding the strength
The sense, amend
Purpose a sub a moon a light
A love, a friend Something, something Hanging on There's only one way out
Pushing up
There's only one way now 'Cause hey, life's for livin'
So don't you give in
Don't you tear it apart, yeah Hey, life's for givin'
So don't you give in
Don't you tear it apart, yeah
