

Do It

Sinistar

Don't activate the hate side of mine
Look at the pain in my eyes
You wanna clue so fuck you
Wanna blast gonna take a stand Jack jump Jill or take a pill
Kill everybody gonna make them think twice
Just check in the distance
For the stars that are in your eyes, do it The street is calling my name
A hard knock to the brain
The world means nothing to me So, if you can see what you wanna be
Go run scared
Gonna make them see do it No matter what you can do
You got the weight of the truth
It's weighing heavy on you In the year of the underdog
You are the star
But you're gonna have to
Activate and motivate do it Now all my circuits are dead and everything seems cool
I'm living out my pain
So wanna blast gotta be the best, yeah
Take a stand make them understand, do it Dreamer you're seeing red
You gotta live in your head
You only know what you're fed In the year of the underdog
You are the star
