Left to Right (Re-Recorded Version)

Kitty Wells

I'm taking your ring from my left hand
Since you've made it plain we must part
But I'm placing it on my right hand
To show the world that I once possessed your heartFrom left to right means goodbye
Oh what a small ring can do
I'm left with these heartaches but I'll always have
The right kind of love for youI'll wear it my darling forever
Tho' you did me wrong I'm not ashamed
When asked who's the giver the tears may fall
But proudly I'll tell them your name
From left to right I've made the change
Tho' the diamond still shines just as bright
As the day that you gave it and my love's as strong
Though I'm changing from left to right
